Madrid, October 26.

THE Commanders of our Squadron in the Levant have sent a Copy of the Result of the Council of War which was held on board the Venetian Fleet, after the Junction of the Auxiliary Squadrons, whereby it appears that our Officers were for attacking the Ottoman Fleet, and that they even protested against the contrary Opinions of the Venetians. The President of the Crusade is ordered to draw up an exact Account of the Revenues of the Crusade, as well in the Indies as in Spain, with the State of the Pensions it is charged with; and 'tis assur'd the King intends to apply that Revenue to the Service of the Navy.

Paris, Nov. 18. Affairs go very bad with M. Gruet, who being brought on Saturday before the Chamber of Justice, desired to see his Wife and Children to take his last Leave of them, who being accordingly introduced, a melancholy Scene passed, but all their Supplications availed nothing. He was carried back to the Conciergerie, and has nothing to expect but Death; three or four People attend to hinder his dashing out his Brains against the Walls in the passionate Fits that frequently seize him. He declaims severely against his Treatment, alledging he never did any Thing but by Order of the Lieutenant General of the Police.

A Person has a Medicine of Chymical Extraction, that in a few Weeks time, safely and firmly cures the Pile in a Woman, without Cutting, by only injecting it in warm and often, and applying it to the Part, keeping it constantly on. It has cured several, who were assured by the most eminent Surgeons, that nothing but Cutting would cure them, and who accordingly would have submitted to that Operation, had they not happily heard of this Remedy in time, as the Patients themselves will testify. In a few Days it takes away all Pain and Uneasiness, and afterwards gradually softens and consumes the Callosity, detaches, incarnates and heals, be the Pile as ever so Callous, Large and Sinuous. Now unlikely forever this may seem to many, what is asserted is real Truth, and all that try the Medicine, will find it by its Effects. Wherefore none but the injudicious will neglect trying it, before they yield to be Cut, how little forever they. Omission may be of it, since it is so harmless as Milk, and can't hurt them in any respect. The Author of it will further satisfy any afflicted with this Malady that desire it. They will be directed to him, upon enquiring at Mr. Provoost's, a Watch-maker and Jeweller, in Hammer-Smith, near Catherine-street in the Strand. He undertakes none but those he is sure of curing, and agrees with them for Reward, before he begins, but not to be paid till the Cure is perfected. The poor, who are unable to pay, he cures gratis.
